The Question

The question is, why did not Mayor

Winter veto the hog ordinance when he had an opportunity to do so? He had it in his power to defeat the ordinance, or make the council pass it over his veto. But he didn't do it. Farm for Rent.

Personal.

Judge Baker returned from Elizabethtown yesterday. The Hardin county circuit court adjourned on Thursday

-Ex-Lieut. Gov. King, of Kentucky, was in the city yesterday. -Mrs. John Q. Harman and Mrs. John

J. Jones, who have been spending a few days in St. Louis, are expected to return this morning.

The Poor Man's Friend. "Proclamation Jack" professes to be a great friend of the poor men of this city, and it is on their account that he opposes the "hog ordinance." If he was in earnest about the matter why did he not veto the ordinance when he had a chance to do so? His reserve on this score is not consistent, and all the "explanations" he may make will not be satisfactory.

The Germans.

Mayor Winter wants the German vote, and we understand he has offered to turn the negro yote over to the man who can deliver the Germans. His honor cannot have a very high opinion of the Germans of Cairo if he believes their votes can be delivered by any man. The Germans of Cairo are a class of people who do their own thinking and voting, and the find that he cannot deliver them.

One of Mayor Winter's strongest and most potent arguments in the present municipal canvass is his opposition to what is commonly known as the hog ordinance," which is a law passed by the city council to prevent stock, and more particularly hogs, from running at large on the streets of the city. For months past Mr. Winter has lost no opportunity to pour into the ears of every laboring man whom he could induce to listen to him the story of efforts to induce the council to repeal this, in his estimation, most obnoxious and oppressive law. Now, without entering into the merits or demerits of the ordinance in question. we shall prove that Mayor Winter is not sincere in his assertions regarding his efforts to do away with the "hog ordinance;" that he has had an opportunity to veto the ordinance, but that he neglected to take advantage of it, whether designedly or through mere negligence we do not pretend to say : but that he approved the ordinance when he had an opportunity to disapprove it, and compel the council to pass it over his vote, if they could, is certain. Last year, or about one year ago, the city council employed Hon. John M. Lansden to revise and codify the ordinances. Of course the revised ordinances came before the council for approval the same as a new ordinance. Among the ordinanses so revised was a section in which was embodied the "hog ordinance." The revised ordinances were read in on as many different occasions, and on the third reading were adopted by the cannot dodge the responsibility of the hog law. He had an opportunity to force the repeal of the law, but de-

The German Vote. It is charged on good authority that Mayor Winter has accosted one of the Democratic candidates with a proposition to turn over to the candidate in question the negro vote of the city, if in consideration therefore the German vote can be given to him. This is a proposition which every respectable German in with severely. the city must regard as an open and direct insult, and one which they should not be slow to resent at the proper time, and in a manner that will teach "his honor" and all other men that the Germans of Cairo are not a class of men whose votes can be bought and sold at will. Of all men the Germans are perhaps the most independent control their votes in a conaccording to their convictions of right and duty; and it is not in the power of any man to deliver their votes to Mr. Winter or any other man. The proporputation against the character of the

A Desperate Negro. Yesterday afternoon while a number of small boys, among them a son of Col. John Wood, a son of Mr. John Kochler, and two or three others, were playing near one of the slaughter houses near the Mississippi leyee, a colored boy named Peter Brown came upon them. Brown had a shot-gun on his shoulder, and as he approached the boys one of them said something to him about shooting, and in reply Campbell Woods said to Brown: "You can't shoot a flea." toung Woods, who is perhaps twelve years of age, was standing near an empty barrel, and as he made the remark he saw Brown's gun go up to his shoulder, and the little fellow dodged behind the barrel just in time to escape the enopen council three separate times, and tire charge of buck shot with which the gun was loaded. ### A Hint for Judge Bird. The San of Wednesday last contained the following item, which was evidently

By united effort on the part of the members of the Democratic party every candidate on the ticket can elected by a handsome majority; but if we allow petty jealousy and personal preferences to step in and prevent us from voting for this or that candidate. then we might as well not have nominated the ticket at all. We believe the number of Democrats who will not vote the ticket to be very small, and the greater portion of this number will be found at the polls on election day ready to vote the Democratic ticket straight.

Tobacco and Cigres.

Merchants, grocers, and saloon-keepers should not torget that Messrs. They have on hand the largest most complete stock of and obacco and cigars ever opened in Cairo, and are prepared to supply the wants of the trade at the lowest living prices. Dealers are invited to call and examine their stock. 4-13-tf.

Committee Meeting.

A meeting of the city Democratic central committee was held at the office of Messrs. Mulkey, Linegar and Lansden last evening. Besides the members of the committee present there was about twenty Democrats, representing every ward in the city. Challengers and a "rallying committee" for each ward was appointed. to the election on Tuesday was transacted. The challengers and members of the rallying committees will be notified of their selection, and it is important that every man performs the duties assigned him promptly and faithfully.

Republican Meeting

A lew of the leading Republicans of the city met at Messrs. Thistlewood & Hinkle's tobacco warehouse on Friday evening for consultation, and to agree on some plan to be followed during the election on Tuesday. It seems the meeting was not well attended, there being only six or seven persons present. The proceedings were secret; and it has leaked out that they discussed "the situation" thoroughly and finally decided on a ticket to be run on Tuesday. Just what the ticket will be has not transpired. Some of them, we are told, objected to supporting Mayor Winter for re-election, and it is not certain that his name will appear at the head of the ticket.

For Alderman.

By reference to a card elsewhere in this issue of the BULLETIN it will be seen that C. O. Patier is a candidate for reelection to the city council. Mr. Patier has been in the council two years, and if re-elected will endeavor to serve the people of his ward and the city at large to the best of his ability.

Mr. Geo. Yocum is also a candidate for re-election from the First ward. Mr. Yocum thas served two years in the council, and his course has been honorable in all things, and if re-elected he will continue to serve his constituents tairly and honorably.

The Second Ward Aldermanship. Mr. Moorelock, the Democratic candidate for alderman in the second ward, is a gentleman in every way qualified for the position, and in the contest will receive the united support of his party. He is popular with the Germans, of whom the second ward has a very large number of voters and he will receive their almost solid support. Mr. Moorelock will make an active and useful member of the council.

Another Richmond.

Mr. William O'Callahan is a candidate tor alderman in the First ward. Mr O'Callahan is a candidate for the seat made vacant by the removal of Jewett Wilcox. Mr. O'Callahan is an old resident of the First ward, and is well-known to nearly every voter in the ward. He is popular with his neighbors, and will receive their hearty support on the day of the election. In the council he will discharge his duties faithfully and without tear or fayor.
